Player Profile - Nick Schneiders

Offense:

Nick is a legit Center who runs the floor extremely well for a player his size and is very mobile on the block.

He has developed into a real threat in the post and has a solid arsenal of post moves. He is able to hit shots from mid-range on a consistent basis and does not only depend on his height advantage.

Nick is capable of playing with his back to the basket as well as facing up. He makes good decisions with the ball and does not force shots or situations.

His long frame makes him tough to stop for opposing players and his quickness surprises his defenders at first.

Defense:

Nick's long arms and his frame make him a real obstacle to overcome. He has good anticipations and gets a lot of blocks and changes almost every shot in the paint because of this length and anticipation.

He has developed into a solid rebounder as well, as he has adapted to the much more athletic game in NCAA 1 basketball quickly.

Nick can bang inside and does not mind to sacrifice his body to get a stop.

Character:

Nick is a very honest and reliable person. He works hard and sets high standards for himself.

He calls himself a perfectionist and wants to get things done. He is looking to always improve himself and is willing to go the extra mile to do so.

Testimonials:

“Nick Schneiders is a young man whose best basketball is definitely out in his future.

I anticipate continued improvement as his game and body continue to improve!”

-- Eddie Payne

Head Coach @ USC Upstate (NCAA 1)

“I have known Nick Schneiders for the past 3 plus years. He is without doubt one of the best young persons I have ever worked with during my 40 years in education and athletics on every level.

Friendly, intelligent, organized and disciplined is the way I would describe Nick. His best years are in front of him especially with regards to his basketball.

Considering that he did not start playing basketball until he was 19 the strides he has made are even that much more remarkable. As for him as a young man he is the total package. Nick Schneiders will be an outstanding addition to any organization that he becomes involved with. Just as he has shown here at UPSTATE he will do whatever it takes to make himself and his organization successful.”

-- Bill Burrows

Assistant Coach @ USC Upstate (NCAA 1)
